

The man behind the shades

secrets he conceals he never will reveal what you come to find will blow your freaky mind love oh love oh love oh sweet remedy
he picks the best and only but few remain
somehow outrageous that look in his eyes
will sure surely blow your freaky
mind

the devil don't say please he says get down on your knees
say no no no no no
if heaven is a breeze
the devil is a storm
say no no no no no

is it in the breed
could it justify the need to cut with razorblades
the man behind the shades

there are things he knows but he does not show for he is calm and wise and he'd blow your freaky mind
love oh love oh love oh sweet
remedy
he picks the best and only but
few remain

the devil don't say please
he says get down on your knees
say no no no no no
if heaven is a breeze
the devil is a storm
say no no no no no

behind the shades

Walking on Air

10 o'clock
Time to get up now
I hear the trains foot foot Crying his soul out We're gonna ride into the future Mr hide the mass persuader on our heels to get us See you later masturbator

I feel i'm walking on air -easy
Could float anywhere
For you

Baby buy another singer the coyote calls Just refute my assertion and i'll leave you alone
Tell me to relax my pulse is beating hard Blood in my veins picture in your heart It's gone unnoticed i'm struck with fever

If you don't heal me Can't stop to heat up I won't be crying nor end in laughter I'd just be dead sad You're the one i'm after i'm walking on air -easy

Could float anywhere
For you

Graham and Nash

Graham and Nash they took all the cash and ran away to the fair grounds where children play kicking rebounds

Graham and nash, Graham and nash Graham and Nash they stole all the cash. They shot in the night to kill me and my family my enemies and they're thinking back

when i was a little kid my momma said u shouldn't steal and then i stole and she found out and so i lied.

When i climbed the trees so high i watched the birds beneath the sky and the sun and moon and me were one

Graham and Nash left blood on the tracks. With a knife in the left and a gun in the right. They don't care about wrong and right

Graham and nash, Graham and nash

Graham and Nash loved cocaine and hash. They'd deal they'd steal Whatever they could for money

And they're thinking back

Well i am Nash and i've betrayed my best friend and my family A thief i am and allways i will be Once i climbed the trees so high And i watched the clouds up in the sky and i wished to sail with them but in vain

Angels hair

Hey hey don't cry
There's a picture in the sky Waiting for you Is there nothing we can do for me and you?

Dusty gravelroads burning cobblestones
But soon i'll be there on tomorrow square
Oh wow it's free
Your courtesy
A busride to the sea
A sparkling christmas tree

Oh peta don't deceive me
Angels hair

Hey hey i tried I travelled 100000 miles it took a while I've been up and down and round and round Blew me into higher grounds Up and down and round it's all the same

Angels hair
Angels hair

Child so Blue

I'm sitting by my window still the rainbow's melting with the hills and slowly fades away Now I've got a looking glass Reflecting over questions asked questions never answered

Ref.:

*And it seems as though this life could last forever when all I know is that I'm so
in love with u CHILD SO BLUE*

Hills of green and seas of light My lady's coming home tonight Long time baby was so far away Babe don't u cry for me

I'll wait for u in heaven
Where the angels sing so sweet

... Refrain

My babe left at moonshine hour too fast she felt that our love could never last there's a black flag flying high watch her weep and hear her cry I touched the sky - so blue

Ref.:

this life is gone forever ...

Today it's gonna Rain

I went down to thumbleweed Just to do a little deal Ladies one thing you must know You've got to let the cash flow Ceased to hike slept allright On the roadside by the beach allnight Silent night stars in sight Smiled bright at me

Ref.: Morning came warm and fast Yesterday had gone at last

Well you'll get wet so i was told
If you travell without raincoat Ten days gone by but i was dry
So i chose a pantyhose Pantyhose was full of lice
But the itch was rather nice So i sold my merchandise
And started up from scratch

Refrain...

Harder i tried and higher fled Must have done quite well If not for the bitch i could have been rich Nobody can tell I lost my money lost my honey Lost everything i owned
Lost my friends and family
And everyone i knowed

Refrain...

Well i'm alone on the road that leads to anywhere. Well all roads go to rome but when will i get there I lost my money lost my honey. Lost everything i owned

Goldmarie

Poor poor goldmarie She sleeps on the streets with no pillow and no sheets
The people in the town don't know about her. Or maybe they don't wanna know. Poor poor goldmarie she's young. She lives in a box at the southern end of town Life's been treating you so badly Nothing ever worked out right
And how many times Did you break down and cry

Goldmarie here's a nickel and a dime. Spend it on the wine
When it's cold be merry. There's
for you that goes like this

Poor poor goldmarie. She sang like a nightingale noone could withstand her spell. The people in the town they stopped and listened Some of them they even sang along. Poor poor goldmarie needs a dime.. Just give her a quarter and you might see her smile. Her melody will make your heart sing. But when you leave deep will be your grief. How many times will you walk by and not give her a dime
