

Chris Schermer

Acoustic sound with punch !

Chris Schermer grew up in Austria, GB and Australia. Chris Schermer's music is melodic without baby, baby schmalz, dirty without being sloppy. The songs tell stories.

Chris is the ultimate musician, touring 200 days a year playing concerts in clubs and festivals all over Europe.

He has toured with and supported many major acoustic artists among them Ben Harper, Donavon Frankenreiter, Xavier Rudd , Wallis Bird, Nica Costa etc.

His new songs "Everywhere" and "Smalltown Graveyard " have become alternative radio hits in many European countries.

The wonderful song "Smalltown Graveyard" is a songs about Life and Loss, but with a positive vibe about it.. It is a homage to life and to a good friend who died at the fire train accident in the small skiing town of Kaprun in Austria" says Chris.

The new Cd "Diamonds From Demons" rocks! Chris Schermer invited Percussionist David Leach (Ben Harper, Jack Johnsson, Donavon Frankenreiter, David Bowie, Earth Wind and Fire etc.) to play on the Album. It has received raving reviews for its uniqueness and versatility and the beauty of the compositions.

Chris has spent most of his youth travelling the globe "I can't turn away all the sounds that I have come across in my life-so every piece of music I compose is eclectic. Every piece has a unique quality.. I don't want every song to sound similar to the one before.. This concept just works better for me."

Evidently many styles of music are featured at a Chris Schermer concert. Songs in styles ranging from Folk to Funk, Alternative Rock, Reggae, Blues, Latin and even Hip Hop. Chris' smooth Voice (he studied Jazz singing with Mark Murphy (Grammy nominee) and Michele Hendricks) and special unique style of Acoustic Guitar playing – sometimes sounding like 2 or 3 Guys at once is unique and Chris Schermer is definitely one of the most interesting acoustic Guitar Players =Singers = Songwriters on the scene at this moment.
